Dear Sir/Madam,

We cordially invite you to the Bodhi Hybrid International Multidisciplinary Conference on “Recent Developments In Social Sciences, Arts And Sciences” on 17 October 2023 to be held in St. Antony's college of Arts and Sciences for Women, Dindigul, Tamil Nadu.

Sincerely,
Organizing Committee

About St. Antony's College

St. Antony's College of Arts and Sciences for Women, Dindigul, is a minority, self-financing institution established in 2007 by the Congregation of the Sisters of the Immaculate Conception (C.I.C) with the blessings, guidance and moral support of the Most Rev. Dr. Antony Pappusamy, the Bishop of Dindigul. This premier institution of higher education is located on 20-acre campus with beautiful gardens, well-furnished and aesthetically designed buildings, and sports grounds at Thamarapadi, 10km North of Dindigul on Trichy-Dindigul Highways (NH45), far from the deadening noises and disturbances of the town, a necessary condition to academic pursuits. The Congregation has a vast experience in the field of secondary, higher, and teacher training education in addition to other types of social work. Its motto is Empowering women through higher education.

The college now offers 12 UG and 8 PG courses. With the spirit of good will, it imparts quality higher education with creative, critical, and communication skills in addition to domain knowledge to women students, especially the poor, the needy and the underprivileged for their holistic development in response to the greatest commandment of love of our Lord Jesus Christ and for contribution to building a developed India. It provides opportunities for honing their employability skills through curricular and co-curricular training. It also motivates students to be responsible citizens and to be accountable for their time invested and competence acquired. In this context, it has signed functional MoUs with various universities, colleges and with other reputed industries/agencies.

About Oriental College Kohima

Oriental College Kohima is a private institution, established in 1996 by a group of enthusiastic, energetic men under the auspices of the Christian Youth Organization of Christian Revival Church (CRC), Kohima Village. Christian Youth Organisation CRC is registered under Registration of Societies Act, 1969 and numbered as H/RS-4958 dated 25th January 2008. The University Grants Commission have granted recognition to the college under section 2(f) and 12(b) of the UGC Act, 1956 on 7th July 2011. The College is located in a sprawling, scenic and serene location and caters to the needs and demands of higher education among students of Nagaland and the neighbouring states. The campus spreads over a vast stretch of land measuring about 4.74 acres and is located below the East Circular Road about 1.4 Km from the main city Kohima.

Apart from the academic learning, the college provides life skills, personality and skill development training to its students. This is done in order to inculcate life-values and upgrade the skills and talents of the students and to prepare them to live holistic, well-rounded lives. The college has a well-equipped library and computer laboratory as well as a gymnasium, indoor stadium for badminton, table tennis, a day care centre, etc. The faculty consists of highly qualified and experienced teachers who are not only committed in helping the students in their academic pursuits but also in mentoring and shaping their future.

Currently, the college offers eight UG courses in Arts and Commerce subjects, and it is one of the few institutions in the state offering the subject of Philosophy and Tenyidie to students.
